The 5th London Trainees' Conference 2020: Culture, Culture, Culture

A free virtual half-day conference for all postgraduate medical trainees across London

Date: Friday 6th November 2020
9.00am – 12.30pm

#LTC20

Our exciting annual conference turns virtual! We will be exploring culture in a variety of mediums in medicine including the NHS workforce and workplace culture, wellbeing, experiences during COVID-19, diversity and ethnicity, research, academia and learning first hand from colleagues whose careers have taken fascinating directions. More information about the exciting workshops and inspiring speakers is on Eventbrite.

Register by clicking the link below and arrange study leave now.
