

Managing and supporting Trainees in Difficult Situations (TIDS) workshop for multiprofessional educators

Thursday 17th November 2022
( 9.30am-12.30pm), via Zoom

A half day session, run by the Professional Support Unit (PSU) designed for multiprofessional educators who need support or who anticipate doing so in the future.

There will be opportunities for accessing peer support and engaging in small group discussions around any current/unresolved dilemmas and difficulties supervisors are facing in relation to trainees. We will also be discussing the resources available to trainees and educators alike.

Facilitated by:

- Dr Ali Hassas, Associate Dean
- Jacqueline MacDonald-Davis, Education Lead and Individual Support Advisor
- Dr Serena North, Individual Support Advisor
